

Seminar on Japanese Literature

Enjoy the Japanese Culture:

The Civilian Spirit and Lifestyle in the Edo Period in the Study of History

This seminar features the old documents and everyday life in the Edo period, and helps you reflect on the difference from modern culture.

A Japanese/English interpreter will be available for non-Japanese participants.

Date:

Sunday, June 25th

Time:

2 p.m. - 4 p.m.

Venue:

Conference Room 1-3, 2nd floor of International Exchange
and Culture Building, Akishimaensis

Lecturer:

OTA Naohiro (太田 尚宏)

(Assistant Professor of National Institute of Japanese Literature)

Open to:

General Public

Capacity:

35 people (First applied, first served)

Fee:

Free of Charge

Registration:

Registration will be available

at Each Service Desk of Civic Library

or via phone (043-543-1523)

from 10 a.m. on Tuesday May 25th.

Contact: Akishima Civic Library

3-3-15 Tsutsujigaoka, Akishima City, Tokyo

Postal Code: 196-0012

Phone: 042-543-1523